Introduction

Dear Fellow San Fernando Valley Resident,

One of the most important things my office can do is assist businesses in California’s 29th Congressional District. We provide information about the various federal, state and local agencies that assist small business and entrepreneurial development, business regulations, financing, government contracting, minority-owned business programs, strategic assistance, export assistance and overseas investment opportunities. Our office also can provide information on how to sell to the government, and we will work on your behalf to request timely action on your proposals to the government, or to ensure that they receive full consideration. Please contact us at (818) 504-0090 to request additional information.

As a former small business owner, former Los Angeles City Council member, former member of the State Assembly, member of the United States House of Representatives Committee on the Budget, and Chair of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus Task Force on Financial Services, Manufacturing and Commerce, I have seen the impact in neighborhoods throughout my district when a small, local business opens or closes. Their supply chain is local, their employees have a vested interest in their success and their customers treasure the connection a hometown business brings. I know I echo the view of the entire U.S. House of Representatives when I applaud these small businesses, the risks that they have taken and the successes they have had.

I am committed to helping individuals, groups and businesses in the San Fernando Valley to apply for funding that can help accomplish important goals for community growth. This guide book can serve as a great resource for the myriad information online about how to secure a grant for your small business. Before you start, please be aware that most federal funding goes to state and local governments, and organizations providing community service, not individuals.

In addition to this guidebook, my Congressional website (http://www.cardenas.house.gov) is continually updated with critical information about various funding opportunities that are available to you, how to access them, and where to apply. You can also request hard copies of this guidebook, and other thematic funding guidebooks, by filling out the order form at the end of this guidebook and mailing it back to my district office in Arleta or by emailing an electronic copy to CA29grants@mail.house.gov. Furthermore, if you need assistance from a federal agency, please refer to the casework form at the end of this document or visit https://cardenas.house.gov/services/help-with-a-federal-agency. As you move forward with any grant opportunities, please contact Jacqueline Eufrausino, my Small Business Grants Director, for letters of support, when applicable. You can reach her in my Washington, D.C. Office at CA29grants@mail.house.gov, or (202) 225-6131.

Sincerely,

Tony Cárdenas

Small Business Loans

1) 7(a) Loan Program
- The 7(a) Loan Program is SBA’s primary program to help start-up and existing small businesses obtain financing when they might not be eligible for business loans through normal lending channels. The name comes from section 7(a) of the Small Business Act, which authorizes SBA to provide business loans to American small businesses. SBA itself does not make loans, but rather guarantees a portion of loans made and administered by commercial lending institutions.

Additional Information:
- 7(a) loans are the most basic and most commonly used type of loans. They are also the most flexible, since financing can be guaranteed for a variety of general business proposals, including working capital, machinery and equipment, furniture and fixtures, land and building (including purchase, renovation and new construction), leasehold improvements, and debt refinancing (under special conditions).
- All 7(a) loans are provided by lenders who are called participants because they participate with SBA in the 7(a) program. Not all lenders choose to participate, but most American banks do. There are also some non-bank lenders who participate with SBA in the 7(a) program, which expands the availability of lenders making loans under SBA guidelines.

Eligibility:
- The eligibility requirements are designed to be as broad as possible in order for this lending program to accommodate the most diverse variety of small business financing needs. All businesses that are considered for financing under SBA’s 7(a) loan program must: meet SBA size standards, be for-profit, not already have the internal resources (business or personal) to provide the financing and be able to demonstrate repayment.
- Eligibility factors for all 7(a) loans include: size, type of business, use of proceeds and the availability of funds from other sources.

Contact Information:
- For more information, please visit: http://www.sba.gov/category/navigation-structure/loans-grants/small-business-loans/sba-loan-programs/7a-loan-program
2) CDC/504 Loan

- The CDC/504 Loan program is a long-term financing tool for economic development within a community. The 504 Program provides growing businesses with long-term, fixed-rate financing for major fixed assets, such as land and buildings. A Certified Development Company is a nonprofit corporation set up to contribute to the economic development of its community. CDCs work with the SBA and private-sector lenders to provide financing to small businesses. There are about 270 CDCs nationwide, with each covering a specific geographic area.

Additional Information:
- Proceeds from 504 loans must be used for fixed asset projects such as: purchasing land and improvements, including existing buildings, grading, street improvements, utilities, parking lots and landscaping; construction of new facilities, or modernizing, renovating or converting existing facilities; or purchasing long-term machinery and equipment. The 504 Program cannot be used for working capital or inventory, consolidating or repaying debt, or refinancing.
- Interest rates on 504 loans are pegged to an increment above the current market rate for five-year and 10-year U.S. Treasury issues. Maturities of 10 and 20 years are available. Fees total approximately three (3) percent of the debenture and may be financed with the loan.

Eligibility:
- To be eligible, the business must be operated for profit and fall within the size standards set by the SBA. Under the 504 Program, the business qualifies as small if it does not have a tangible net worth in excess of $7.5 million and does not have an average net income in excess of $2.5 million after taxes for the preceding two years. Loans cannot be made to businesses engaged in speculation or investment in rental real estate.

Contact Information:

- Telephone: (800) 827-5722

3) Disaster Loan

- If you are in a declared disaster area and are the victim of a disaster, you may be eligible for financial assistance from the U.S. Small Business Administration - even if you don’t own a business. As a homeowner, renter and/or personal-property owner, you may apply to the SBA for a loan to help you recover from a disaster.

Additional Information:
- Personal Property Loan: This loan can provide a homeowner or renter with up to $40,000 to help repair or replace personal property, such as clothing, furniture, automobiles, etc., lost in the disaster. As a rule of thumb, personal property is anything that is not considered real estate or a part of the actual structure. This loan may not be used to replace extraordinarily expensive or irreplaceable items, such as antiques, collections, pleasure boats, recreational vehicles, fur coats, etc.
- Real Property Loan: A homeowner may apply for a loan of up to $200,000 to repair or restore their primary home to its pre-disaster condition. The loan may not be used to upgrade the home or make additions to it. If, however, city or county building codes require structural improvements, the loan may be used to meet these requirements. Loans may be increased by as much as 20 percent to protect the damaged real property from possible future disasters of the same kind.

Contact Information:
4) Export Express Loans

- The SBA Export Express program provides exporters and lenders a streamlined method to obtain SBA backed financing for loans and lines of credit up to $250,000. Lenders use their own credit decision process and loan documentation; exporters get access to their funds faster. The SBA provides an expedited eligibility review and provides a response in less than 24 hours.

Additional Information:

- SBA Export Express loans are available to businesses that meet the normal requirements for an SBA business loan guaranty. Financing is available for manufacturers, wholesalers, export trading companies and service exporters. Loan applicants must demonstrate that the loan proceeds will enable them to enter a new export market or expand an existing export market. Applicants must have been in business, though not necessarily in exporting, for at least 12 months.
- The SBA does not establish or subsidize interest rates on loans. Interest rates are negotiated between the borrower and the lender, but may never exceed SBA interest rate caps. Rates can either be fixed or variable, and are tied to the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal.

5) Export Transaction Financing

- SBA’s Export Working Capital Program (EWCP) loans are targeted for businesses that are able to generate export sales and need additional working capital to support these sales. SBA’s aim for the EWCP program is to ensure that qualified small business exporters do not lose viable export sales due to a lack of working capital.

Additional Information:

- Application is made directly to lenders. Interested businesses are encouraged to contact the SBA staff at a U.S. Export Assistance Center (USEAC) to discuss whether they are eligible for the EWCP program and whether it is the appropriate tool to meet their export financing needs. The participating lenders review / approve the applications and submit the request to the SBA staff at the USEAC location servicing the exporters’ geographical territory.
The maximum EWCP line of credit/loan amount is $2 million. Participating banks receive a 90% SBA guaranty provided that the total SBA guaranteed portion to the borrower does not exceed $1.5 million. In those instances where the SBA guaranteed portion reaches the $1.5 million cap, banks can still get a 90% guaranty thanks to a co-guaranty program between SBA and the Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM).

The SBA does not establish or subsidize interest rates on loans. The interest rate can be fixed or variable and is negotiated between the borrower and the participant lender.

6) International Trade Loans

The SBA International Trade Loan program is a term loan designed for businesses that plan to start/continue exporting or those that have been adversely affected by competition from imports. The proceeds of the Loan must enable the borrower to be in a better position to compete.

Additional Information:
- Eligible Businesses
  Small businesses that are in a position to expand existing export markets/develop new export markets or small businesses that have been adversely affected by international trade and can demonstrate that the Loan proceeds will improve their competitive position are eligible for International Trade Loans
- Loan Amount
  The maximum gross amount ($2 million) and SBA-guaranteed amount ($1.5 million) for an International Trade Loan is the same as a regular 7(a) loan. However, there is an exception to the maximum SBA 7(a) guaranty amount to one borrower. When there is an International Trade loan and a separate working capital loan, the maximum SBA guaranty on the combined loans can be up to $1.75 million as long as the SBA guaranty on the working capital loan does not exceed $1,250,000.
- Interest Rate
  The SBA does not establish or subsidize interest rates on loans. Interest rates are negotiated between the borrower and the lender, subject to SBA caps. Rates can either be fixed or variable, and are tied to the prime rate as published in The Wall Street Journal. For loans greater than $50,000 and maturity in excess of 7 years, lenders may charge up to 2.75 percent over prime rate.

7) Military Reservists Loan

The purpose of the Military Reservist Economic Injury Disaster Loan program (MREIDL) is to provide funds to an eligible small business to meet its ordinary and necessary operating expenses that it could have met, but is unable to meet, because an essential employee was "called-up" to active duty in their role as a military reservist.

These loans are intended only to provide the amount of working capital needed by a small business to pay its necessary obligations as they mature until operations return to normal after the essential employee is released from active military duty. The purpose of these loans is not to cover lost income or lost profits. MREIDL funds cannot be used to take the place of regular commercial debt, to refinance long-term debt or to expand the business.
Federal law requires SBA to determine whether credit in an amount needed to accomplish full recovery is available from non-government sources without creating an undue financial hardship to the applicant. The law calls this credit available elsewhere. Generally, SBA determines that over 90% of disaster loan applicants do not have sufficient financial resources to recover without the assistance of the Federal government. Because the Military Reservist economic injury loans are taxpayer subsidized, Congress intended that applicants with the financial capacity to fund their own recovery should do so and therefore are not eligible for MREIDL assistance.

Additional Information:
- The law authorizes loan terms up to a maximum of 30 years. SBA determines the term of each loan in accordance with the borrower’s ability to repay. Based on the financial circumstances of each borrower, SBA determines an appropriate installment payment amount, which in turn determines the actual term.
- Loan Amount Limit - $2,000,000: The actual amount of each loan, up to this maximum, is limited to the actual economic injury as calculated by SBA, not compensated by business interruption insurance or otherwise, and beyond the ability of the business and/or its owners to provide. If a business is a major source of employment, SBA has authority to waive the $2,000,000 statutory limit.

Contact Information:
- Phone: (800)827-5722
- Email: answerdesk@sba.gov

8) Patriot Express & Pilot Programs
- The new Patriot Express loan is offered by SBA’s network of participating lenders nationwide and features our fastest turnaround time for loan approvals. Loans are available up to $500,000 and qualify for SBA’s maximum guaranty of up to 85 percent for loans of $150,000 or less and up to 75 percent for loans over $150,000 up to $500,000. For loans above $350,000, lenders are required to take all available collateral.

Additional Information:
- The SBA and its resource partners are focusing additional efforts on counseling and training to augment this loan initiative.

Eligible Applicants:
- Eligible military community members include veterans, service-disabled veterans, active-duty service members eligible for the military’s Transition Assistance Program, Reservists and National Guard members, current spouses of any of the above, or a widowed spouse of a service member or veteran who died during service or of a service-connected disability.

Contact Information:
- More Information: http://www.sba.gov/content/express-programs

9) Microloans
- The Microloan Program provides very small loans to start-up, newly established, or growing small business concerns. Under this program, SBA makes funds available to nonprofit community-based lenders (intermediaries) which, in turn, make loans to eligible borrowers in amounts up to a maximum of $35,000. The average loan size is about $13,000. Applications are submitted to the local intermediary and all credit decisions are made on the local level.
Additional Information:
- The maximum term allowed for a microloan is six years. However, loan terms vary according to the size of the loan, the planned use of funds, the requirements of the intermediary lender, and the needs of the small business borrower.

1) Small Business Administration Programs

- Small Business Investment Companies (SBICs)

  SBICs are privately owned companies that are licensed by the SBA to provide debt and equity capital to small businesses. They can obtain loans from the SBA to supplement their own capital.

  For the SBIC program, a small business is a business with net worth of $18 million or less and an average after-tax income for the two preceding years of $6 million or less. There are alternative size standards in some industries. The SBIC sells a debenture to the SBA, which guarantees repayment and creates a pool of these debentures for resale on the secondary market. SBICs can borrow three times their private capital to a maximum of $113 million.

- New Market Venture Capital

  New Market Venture Capital is a program that encourages equity investments in small businesses in low-income areas that meet specific statistical criteria established by regulation. A tax credit is available on a competitive basis.

1) Alternative Minimum Tax Exemption

- As a result of the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (P.L. 105-34), certain small corporations have been exempt from the AMT since 1998. If a corporation loses its eligibility, it becomes subject to the AMT in the first tax year when it no longer qualifies for the exemption and in every tax year thereafter, regardless of the amount of its gross receipts.

Additional Information:

- There is reason to believe that this exemption gives some eligible small corporations what amounts to a slight competitive advantage over comparable firms paying the AMT. A 1997 study estimated that firms that invested heavily in machinery and equipment and intangible assets like research and development (R&D), financed the bulk of their investments through debt, and paid the AMT for five or more successive years had a higher cost of capital than comparable firms that paid the regular income tax only in the same period.
- The exemption also provides owners of small firms with an incentive to incorporate, since the taxable income of pass through entities is subject to the individual AMT through the tax returns filed by individual owners.

Eligibility:

- Eligibility is determined by a corporation’s average annual gross receipts in the previous three tax years. All corporations formed after 1998 are exempt from the AMT in their first year with taxable income, regardless of the size of their gross receipts.
- They remain exempt as long as their average annual gross receipts do not exceed $5 million in their first three tax years, and as long as their average annual gross receipts do not exceed $7.5 million in each succeeding three-year period (e.g., 1999-2001, 2000-2002, etc.).

2) Amortization of Business Start-Up Costs

- Under IRC Section 195 (as amended by P.L. 108-357), business taxpayers who incur business start-up and organizational costs after October 22, 2004, are allowed to deduct up to $5,000 of those costs in the year when the new trade or business begins. This maximum deduction is reduced (but not below zero) by the amount by which eligible expenditures exceed $50,000.

Additional Information:
- Business taxpayers who incurred or paid business start-up and organizational costs and then entered a trade or business on or before October 22, 2004, could amortize (or deduct in equal annual amounts) those expenditures over not less than five years, beginning in the month when the new trade or business commenced.
- To qualify for the current deduction, the start-up and organizational costs must meet two requirements. They must be paid or incurred as part of an investigation into creating or acquiring an active trade or business, as part of starting a new trade or business, or as part of an activity done to produce income or profit before starting a trade or business with the aim of converting the activity into an active trade or business.
- Any eligible expenditure that cannot be deducted may be amortized over 15 years, beginning in the month when the new trade or business begins to earn income. In order to claim the $5,000 deduction, a taxpayer must have an equity interest in the new trade or business and actively participate in its management.

Contact Information:

3) Net Operating Losses

- A firm incurs a net operating loss (NOL) for tax purposes when its deductions exceed its gross income. As a result, it has no income tax liability in an NOL year. An NOL may be used to obtain a refund of taxes paid in previous years or to reduce or offset future tax liabilities. Under IRC Section 172(b), a business taxpayer is permitted to carry an NOL back to each of the two tax years preceding the NOL year and forward to each of the 20 tax years following that year.

Additional Information:
- A provision of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 extended the carry back period for NOLs to five years for eligible firms that incurred an NOL in 2008. Only firms with average annual gross receipts of $15 million or less in the NOL year and the two previous tax years may take advantage of the extension. The provision is intended to bolster the cash flow of small firms that have experienced a significant loss of revenue in the current recession.

4) Partial Exclusion of Capital Gains on Certain Small Business Stock

- Two important considerations in determining an individual’s income tax liability are the recognition of income as ordinary or capital and the distinction between long-term and short-term capital gains or losses.

Additional Information:
- Under IRC Section 1202, non-corporate taxpayers (including partnerships, LLCs, and S corporations) may exclude 50% of any gain from the sale or exchange of qualified small business stock (QSBS) that has been held for over five years. The exclusion rises to 60% if the QSBS has been issued by a qualified corporation based in an empowerment zone. And under a provision of the ARRA, it becomes 75% for QSBS acquired from February 18, 2009, through December 31, 2010, and held for five years.

- There is a cumulative limit on the gain from stock issued by a single qualified corporation that may be excluded: in a single tax year, the gain is limited to the greater of 10 times the taxpayer’s adjusted basis of all QSBS issued by the firm and sold or exchanged during the year, or $10 million—reduced by any gains excluded by the taxpayer in previous years. The remaining gain is taxed at a fixed rate of 28%. As a result, the marginal effective tax rate on capital gains from the sale or exchange of QSBS held longer than five years is 14%: 0.5 x 0.28.

- For individuals subject to the AMT, a portion of the excluded gain is treated as an individual AMT preference item, which means that it must be included in the calculation of AMT taxable income. The portion was 42% for QSBS acquired on or before December 31, 2000 and disposed of by May 6, 2003; 28% for QSBS acquired after December 31, 2000 and disposed of by May 6, 2003; and 7% for QSBS acquired after May 6, 2003 and disposed of by December 31, 2008.

- To qualify for the partial exclusion, small business stock must satisfy certain requirements. First, it must be issued after August 10, 1993 and must be acquired by the taxpayer at its original issue, either directly or through an underwriter, in exchange for money, property, or as compensation for services rendered to the issuing corporation. Second, the stock must be issued by a domestic corporation whose gross assets do not exceed $50 million before and immediately after the stock is issued. Third, at least 80% of the corporation’s assets must be tied to the active conduct of one or more qualified trades or businesses during “substantially all” of the requisite five-year holding period.

5) Losses on Small Business Investment Company Stock Treated as Ordinary Losses without Limitation

- Under IRC Section 1242, individuals who invest in small business investment companies (SBICs) are permitted to deduct from ordinary income all losses from the sale or exchange or worthlessness of stock in these companies. This treatment is intended to foster equity investment in these companies by lowering the after-tax loss on an investment in an SBIC, relative to after-tax losses on similar investments.

Additional Information:

- SBICs are private regulated investment corporations that are licensed under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 to provide equity capital, long-term loans, and managerial guidance to firms with a net worth of less than $18 million and less than $6 million in average net income over the previous two years.

- They use their own capital and funds borrowed at favorable rates through SBA loan guarantees to make equity and debt investments in qualified firms. For tax purposes, most SBICs are treated as C corporations. There are no known estimates of the revenue loss associated with this small business tax benefit.

Contact Information:

6) Rollover of Gains into Specialized Small Business Stock

- Individual and corporate taxpayers who satisfy certain conditions are allowed to roll over, free of tax, any capital gains on the sale of publicly traded securities. The proceeds from the sale must be used to purchase common stock or partnership interests in specialized small business investment companies (SSBICs) licensed under the Small Business Investment Act of 1958 within 60 days of the sale.

- SSBICs are similar to SBICs except that SSBICs are required to invest in small firms owned by individuals who are considered socially or economically disadvantaged—mainly members of minority groups.
Additional Information:

- If the proceeds from the sale exceed the cost of the SSBIC stock or partnership interest, the excess is recognized as a capital gain and taxed accordingly. The taxpayer's basis in the SSBIC stock or partnership interest is reduced by the amount of any gain from the sale of securities that are rolled over.
- The maximum gain an individual can roll over in a single tax year is the lesser of $50,000 or $500,000 less any gains previously rolled over under this provision. For corporations, the maximum deferral in a tax year is the lesser of $250,000 or $1 million less any previously deferred gains.

7) Uniform Capitalization of Inventory Costs

- IRC Section 1244 allows taxpayers to deduct any loss from the sale, exchange, or worthlessness of qualified small business stock as an ordinary loss, rather than a capital loss. For business taxpayers, ordinary losses are treated as business losses in computing a net operating loss.

Additional Information:

- To qualify for this treatment, the stock must meet four requirements. First, it must be issued by a domestic corporation after November 6, 1978.
- Second, the stock must be acquired by an individual investor or a partnership in exchange for money or other property, but not stock or securities.
- Third, the stock must be issued by a small business corporation, which the statute defines as a corporation whose total amount of money and property received as a contribution to capital and paid-in surplus totals less than $1 million when it issues the stock.
- Finally, during the five tax years before a loss on the stock is recognized, the firm must have derived more than 50% of its gross receipts from sources other than royalties, rents, dividends, interest, annuities, and stock or security transactions. The maximum amount that may be deducted as an ordinary loss in a tax year is $50,000 (or $100,000 for a couple filing jointly).

8) Simplified Dollar-Value LIFO Accounting Method for Small Firms

- LIFO operates on the assumption that the most recently acquired goods are sold before all other goods. Consequently, LIFO assigns the newest unit costs to the cost of goods sold and the oldest unit costs to the ending inventory. The method can be advantageous when the cost of many inventory items is rising, because it yields a lower taxable income and inventory valuation than other methods. There are various ways to apply LIFO. A widely used application is known as the dollar-value method. Under this method, a taxpayer accounts for its inventories on the basis of a pool of dollars rather than specific items.

Additional Information:

- IRC Section 474, which was added to the tax code by the Tax Reform Act of 1986, allows eligible small firms to use a simplified dollar-value LIFO method. It differs from the regular dollar-value method in the way in which inventory items are pooled and the technique for estimating the base-year value of the pools. A firm is eligible to use the simplified method if its average annual gross receipts were $5 million or less in the three previous tax years.

9) Tax Credit for Pension Plan Start-Up Costs of Small Firms

- Under IRC Section 45E, qualified small firms may claim a non-refundable tax credit for a portion of the start-up costs they incur in setting up new retirement plans for employees. The credit, which was enacted as part of the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001, began in 2002 and originally was scheduled to disappear (or “sunset”) after 2010. But a provision of the Pension Protection Act of 2006 permanently extended the credit. It is a component of the general business credit and thus subject to its limitations and rules for carryover.
Additional Information:
- The credit is equal to 50% of the first $1,000 in eligible costs incurred in each of the first three years a qualified pension is operative. Eligible costs are defined as the ordinary and necessary expenses incurred in administering the plan and informing employees about the plan’s benefits and requirements. Qualified plans consist of new defined benefit plans, defined contribution plans, savings incentive match plans for employees, and simplified employee pension plans.

Eligibility:
- The credit gives owners of small firms an incentive to establish pension plans for employees by lowering the after-tax cost of setting up and administering these plans in their first three years.
- Firms with fewer than 100 employees, each of whom received at least $5,000 in compensation in the previous year, are eligible to claim the credit

10) Tax Credit for Cost of Making a Business More Accessible to the Disabled
- Under IRC Section 44, an eligible small firm may claim a non-refundable credit for expenses it incurs to make its business more accessible to disabled individuals. The credit is equal to 50% of the amount of eligible expenditures in a tax year over $250 but not greater than $10,250. In the case of a partnership, this upper limit applies separately at the partnership level and at the partner or individual level; the same distinction holds in the case of a subchapter S corporation. The disabled access credit is a component of the general business credit under IRC Section 38 and thus subject to its limitations.

Additional Information:
- To qualify for the credit, a firm must satisfy one of two requirements: its gross receipts (less any returns and allowances) in the previous tax year totaled no more than $1 million, or it employed no more than 30 persons on a full-time basis during that year. A worker is considered a full-time employee if he or she works at least 30 hours a week for 20 or more weeks in a calendar year.

Eligibility:
- Qualified expenses are defined as the amounts an eligible small firm pays or incurs to bring its business into compliance with the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA). They must be reasonable in amount and necessary in light of legal requirements. Eligible expenses include those related to removing architectural, communication, transportation, or physical barriers to making a business accessible to or usable by disabled individuals; providing interpreters or other effective methods of making materials understandable to hearing-impaired individuals; and supplying qualified readers, taped texts, and other effective methods of making materials understandable to visually impaired individuals.
Small Business Administration

1) Small Business Innovation Research Awards (SBIR)

- SBIR awards are competitive grants to small businesses (500 or fewer employees) to research and develop new ideas for selected government agencies. Government agencies with the largest research budgets fund the SBIR program. The SBA coordinates and oversees the SBIR program but does not provide funding for the awards.

Additional Information:
- Phase I grants allow a company to determine if an idea has scientific and technical merit and is feasible.
- Phase II evaluates the idea’s commercial potential.
- Phase III is private sector development of the idea.

2) Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) Awards

The STTR program is similar to the SBIR program, but it requires the small business to work with a nonprofit research institute. The SBA coordinates and oversees the STTR program but does not provide funding for the awards.

Additional Information:

- Following submission of proposals, agencies make STTR awards based on small business/nonprofit research institution qualification, degree of innovation, and future market potential. Small businesses that receive awards then begin a three-phase program.
  - Phase I is the startup phase. Awards of up to $100,000 for approximately one year fund the exploration of the scientific, technical, and commercial feasibility of an idea or technology.
  - Phase II awards of up to $750,000, for as long as two years, expand Phase I results. During this period, the R&D work is performed and the developer begins to consider commercial potential. Only Phase I award winners are considered for Phase II.
  - Phase III is the period during which Phase II innovation moves from the laboratory into the marketplace. No STTR funds support this phase. The small business must find funding in the private sector or other non-STTR federal agency funding.
